ABRAHAM LINCOLN,
Of Illinois.

What Compromise will Bring.

The Compromise proposed by the "Democracy" is a device to procure political ascendancy to save Slavery, to prevent the further distress and punishment of the traitors, South and, if these ends can be secured in no other way to dissolve the Union to accomplish that.

Compromise will bring either

1st. An unconditional recognition of the independence of the Confederacy, or,

2d. An arrangement between the government and the authorities of the rebellion wherein there must be numerous and perplexing complications and by means of which interminable and insolvable difficulties must ensue, or

3d. A temporary truce, during the continuance of which the South will recuperate its powers and prepare to commence the war anew.

Under either of these propositions, peace and security are unattainable and impossible. And he who would accept the certainty of a future, unending war, in order that he might enjoy a present brief, precarious peace, is much in the same condition as the man who would deliberately relinquish his hopes of eternity for the sake of being permitted to live until the expiration of his allotted amount of time.

Comparatively few are yet willing to accede to the demands of the rebels for independence. Hence it is not, just now, necessary to combat a proposition looking toward this result. But the independence of the South will yet be made an issue upon which the "Democratic" party will stand. That party's present position is merely initiatory to its certain future advocacy of Confederate Independence.

The second proposition enunciated as the probable result of a Compromise, is not less objectionable than the first. The very causes of the present war, greatly multiplied and greatly aggravated would be retained. And does any one suppose that under such a regime, with the means of engendering new difficulties largely enhanced, and with the chances for creating new points of difference greatly increased, our people could live together more peacefully and fraternally than they did before?

Compromise is simply impossible. It will not bring blessed peace, but it will bring confusion, discord, division, disgrace and shame. Compromise is an enemy under the guise of a friend.

The Man.

Hon. John T. Mills, of Wisconsin, has published in a paper in that State, an account of a late interview he had with the President. Response was made to the Copperhead policy which demanded that the 200,000 men now in the service of the States, should be restored to Slavery in order to conciliate the rebels of the South. Said President Lincoln:

If we should abandon all the forts now garrisoned by black men, take the 200,000 men from our side and put them in the battle field or corn field against us, we should be obliged to abandon the war in three weeks.

There have been men base enough to propose to me to return to slavery the black warriors of Port Hudson and Olustee and thus win the respect of the masters they fought. Should I do so I should deserve to be damned in time and eternity. Come what will, I will keep my faith with friend and foe. My enemies pretend I am now carrying on this war for the sole purpose of abolition. So long as I am President it shall be carried on for the sole purpose of restoring the Union. But no human power can subdue this rebellion without the use of the emancipation policy, and every other policy calculated to weaken the moral and physical force of the rebellion.

Freedom has given us 200,000 men raised on Southern soil. It will give us more yet. Just so much it has subtracted from the enemy, and instead of alienating the South there are now evidences of a fraternal feeling growing up between our men and the rank and file of the rebel soldiers. Let my enemies prove to the country that the destruction of slavery is not necessary to the restoration of the Union. I will abide the issue.

There spoke Abraham Lincoln. He will abide the issue. We doubt not what that decision will be. It will crush the monster now and forever that has sought to break up this government and to rear another based upon human slavery.

Judge Mills found the President a man of deep convictions, having an abiding faith in justice, truth and Providence. His voice was pleasant and his manner earnest and emphatic. As he warmed with his theme, his mind grew to the magnitude of his body. I felt that I was in the presence of the great guiding intellect of the age, and that those huge Atlantean shoulders were fit to bear the weight of mightiest monarchies. His transparent honesty, republican simplicity, his gushing sympathy for those who offered their lives for their country, his utter forgetfulness of self in his concern for its welfare, could not but inspire me with confidence that he was Heaven's instrument to conduct his people through this sea of blood to a Canaan of peace and freedom.

The whole civilized world—with the exception of traitors and their Copperhead allies—will approve the noble declaration of Mr. Lincoln. Should I return to slavery the black warriors who have [illegible] I should deserve to be damned in time and eternity. I'll keep [illegible]

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to October 24.

[illegible]

The steamship Brother Jonathan from San Francisco via Victoria [illegible] yesterday brought papers from Vancouver Island to the 22d [illegible] from which we condense the following summary of news.

The steamer [illegible] was hauled out and [illegible] being repaired.

The steamer Jenny Jones is engaged in carrying supplies to the Indians on Neah Bay.

[illegible] of Captain Albemarle Bettin [illegible] at [illegible] is reported. Deceased was the only [illegible] the late Admiral [illegible] By the death of his [illegible] he was heir to considerable property in England. [illegible]

[illegible] the Enterprise [illegible] the Ann [illegible] Lake. The captain of the Lady of the Lake had proceeded to New Westminster on business and left the engine in charge of a Swiss, who was somewhat perplexed at the [illegible] of the machine under [illegible] About midway some of the passengers found out there was a scarcity of water in the boilers. Attention was called to this pleasant fact, but little purpose. At length a notion dawned upon the Swiss's intellect that something was wrong as the boilers were becoming red hot. He [illegible] the fire and immediately seized a hand pump to rectify the error by filling them with cold water in their heated condition. An old steamboat hand rushed to prevent him from causing an explosion which would have been inevitable and only succeeded by threatening to throw him overboard. The boat of course came to a stand still and was [illegible] hours.

A committee of ladies in Victoria have kindly taken [illegible] the management of a female hospital and [illegible] at once with the erection of the building. The cost of the building which has been [illegible] $3,600, $1,600 of which is already in the hands of the committee and the remaining $2,000 is to be raised by public subscription.

The machinery of the Victoria steam dredger is now discharging at the Hudson Bay Company's wharf and part of it already placed on board the [illegible] The completion of the vessel is being hurried [illegible] rapidly as possible. She is the largest vessel yet built in the colony, being [illegible] tons register.

CINCINNATI, June 8, 1861. Messrs. J. I. Scovill & Co. Gents: I feel it a duty I owe to others to let them know the value of your Dr. William Hall's Balsam for curing of Croup. My little girl, seven years old, had an attack of Croup, and came very near dying! I gave her Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam, as directed, which gave relief in a very short time. We have used it in cases of bad cough, with the happiest effect. Benjamin Pilkin, [illegible] between Main and Sycamore streets. For sale by Druggists everywhere. BOILS.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils, and they have been found [illegible], from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of visitors. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the very fuss of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now, is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? We answer Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures. REDINGTON & CO. [illegible] considerations were advanced [illegible] citizens of Portland and the Willamette Valley [illegible] will be more fully developed and brought before the public at an early date. The wants of the [illegible] It was founded by [illegible] and devoted friends of education, men who were willing to devote their labor and [illegible] education and science. Through their [illegible] efforts it has been brought to a point of prosperity encouraging to the friends of education [illegible] derived from the [illegible] upon the [illegible] substantial [illegible] placing it on a [illegible] footing. The trustees desire to raise a [illegible] thousand dollars to pay off some [illegible] liabilities and to make improvements [illegible] growing wants of the institution.

After listening to the statements in regard to the [illegible] the institution [illegible] a committee was [illegible] reported the following resolutions, [illegible] were unanimously adopted, and their publication [illegible] OREGONIAN and Advocate was respectfully requested by vote of the meeting.

Resolved, That the interests of the cause of Education and the prosperity of the Pacific University demand that immediate aid should be rendered [illegible] that Institution by the friends of sound learning [illegible] Oregon, that it may be relieved from its liabilities and may be supplied with suitable buildings [illegible] greatly needed to enable it to meet the wants [illegible] community.

Resolved, That we have full and the utmost confidence in the ability, fidelity and aptness to teach [illegible] Rev. S. H. Marsh, the President, and his associate instructors, who, under weighty discouragements have struggled manfully and with unabated [illegible] for the welfare of the Institution during many years, and we heartily and earnestly commend them to the people of this State who desire to encourage and promote thorough, liberal and judicious education.

Resolved, That we especially urge the citizens of Portland and of this section of the State who are [illegible] interested in the continued growth and prosperity of the Institution to make liberal contributions for its assistance as an act of simple [illegible] to its persevering teachers, and also as an imperative duty incumbent upon the community, [illegible] in reference to the present than to the future, so that it may be strengthened and built up, as a nursery of learning and science and of enlightened progress and liberty.

A committee has been appointed to wait upon the citizens in person for subscription to the above fund.

Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock AND IODINE ALTERATIVE is the only remedy for in[illegible] rating a debilitated and broken down constitution. Persons of a scrofulous habit suffering from impure blood, persons troubled with impaired digestion, liver disease, lost vitality, should give this great blood purifier a trial. All rheumatic diseases, constitutional complaints and organic affections are radically cured by a steady use of this medicine. [illegible]19d3m

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The stomach is the fountain head of scores of diseases which infest the human system. Indigestion, bad enough per se, generates [illegible] dysentery, faintness, vertigo, palpitation of the heart, general debility, &c. Get rid of it then, at once, by going through a course of
Dr. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS,
A palatable and refreshing preparation, which as surely relieves all complaints of the stomach and its dependencies as the sunshine melts the snow. A course of the medicine may not perhaps be necessary. One bottle frequently accomplishes a complete cure.—Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere. [illegible] law
